"THE DAY BEGINS"

"Dawn is a feeling
A beautiful ceiling
The smell of grass
Just makes you pass
Into a dream
You're here today
No future fears
This day will last
A thousand years
If you want it to . . . "

— The Moody Blues
"Days of Future Passed"

To Sir with Love

For four years we Seniors have watched Mr. Cady quietly performing wonders with each human being he encounters. His regard for each person's ability to think has inspired deep respect in everyone who knows him. A belief in justice and the execution of this conviction formed the basis of a solid friendship between Mr. Cady and us students. Mr. Cady offers sympathy, understanding, reason, strength, and an open door to us. In return, the Ulmus Staff can only give him this book with the sincere gratitude we all feel. Thank you.

There must be room for growing
Somewhere else and I'm going

It's time to function as a feeling human being the power of a million new ideas

Everything is going fine
And now we just have to keep in mind
We must set brand new goals
We must not lose control
Of the possibility of the discovery
That would let everybody see
That we were just meant to be.

Just what you want to be you'll be in the end.

I'm looking at myself,
reflections of my mind.

All of us can feel how good it feels to feel free.

The soul is transformed into the image of the vision it pursues.

We are molded by our desires and aims

People finally gettin' together
Makin' life a whole lot better.

Class History

In the fall of 1970, sixty-eight energetic Freshmen entered the unfamiliar halls of ECHS. Being our first year as students of ECHS, we elected our Freshman class officers. They were President Mitchell, Vice-President Coulter, Secretary McKown, and Treasurer Hammond. Our first big event was initiation. But we got it so much easier than those Seniors themselves did when they were Freshmen. We had no mud or icky stuff, because it was in the gym. Thank God for the rain. That night a dance was put on in our favor by the Seniors. Everyone came with garlic salt or butch wax in their hair, but it was a memorable experience because it was our first high school dance. Then Homecoming came rolling around with the parade, game and dance. We, as Freshmen, had a great time building our float, asking someone to the dance, and going to the game, even though we received third place on the float. We took the money and also first place on our stunt.

In our Sophomore year, in the fall of 1971, our class had grown to seventy-two lazy Sophomores. Our Homecoming float took fourth place, but for the second time we took first place on our stunt. We were recognized for nothing except a car wash for Prom. It was a success, and we made billions of dollars.

We were glad to be Juniors, but we started out on the wrong foot. We became known as the Radical Class of '74. It was during this time that our own Carl Sandburg, Tom Koll, wrote his now-famous work of art, "Junior Shaft." We received fourth place on our float, again, and we received third place on our stunt. Our Junior Class play, "Up the Down Staircase", was a huge success and was so much a part of a great year. Then came the responsibility and fun of preparing a prom for the 1973 Senior Class. "An Old-Fashioned Love Song" was one of the most beautiful proms ever presented to Elmwood.

Now having gone through three long years, we are now what we've been looking forward to being--Seniors. As Seniors, our Homecoming was extra special because we put it on. Not to destroy everyone's opinions of our fantastic floats, we again received fourth place, but as usual we took first place on our stunt. We are now looking forward to the completion of our yearbook, the Senior class play, and the Prom. But most of all, we look forward to graduation on May 31, 1974. We will be finally leaving ECHS with as much and more enthusiasm as we did when we came in.

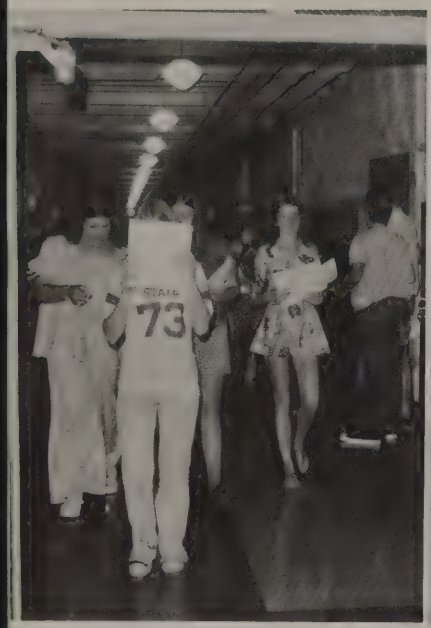
I told him not to do it here!

This book is so goooooooooooood.

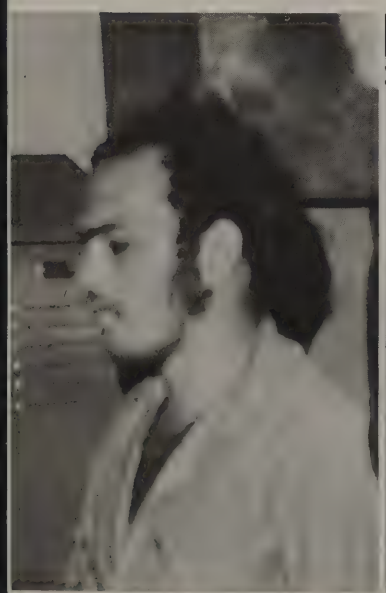
Where's that mouse!?!?!?



Some people just don't want to show their faces.. it must be a bummer.

I SWEAR I left some of the stuffings on the floats.

We need love, love, love, love,.... CRAZY LOVE!!!!!!



When I find out who stole my cigs....

What does 'Jack' want me for now?

Now how am I supposed to get the endust on this here dust mop?!?!?!

I.C.A.C. Tournament

The business of the custodian consists of his reflecting on his own station in life, in discharging loyal service to his many bosses, in deepening his fidelity in association with his friends, and in devoting himself to duty above all.

Harvey

Harvey, in a famous stage play, was a rabbit that performed impossible tasks for other people. For the past eighteen years, Elmwood High has had its own Harvey, last name Ekena, who has also performed near-impossible tasks for the students and teachers of ECHS.

Few people are qualified to become a jack-of-all-trades. But we have discovered that Harvey is one of them. Harvey has been known primarily as a bus driver and a janitor, jobs he has done admirably well. Other jobs on his busy agenda are not as well known. For one thing, Harvey is a stage hand par excellence. Many of the sets for our stage plays have been completed largely through Harvey's technical knowledge. He has also been very important in the completion of many Prom decorations. Who else could get the strategic wires stretched with so little effort? The list of Harvey's contributions could go on and on.

Yet, what most people don't realize is that most of these contributions were "above and beyond the call of duty." Harvey was always willing to give up his time after school, in the evening, and on weekends to help the students and the faculty.
